Sermon Notes

JOYS & CONCERNS OF CHURCH

Greetings!

This past Sunday, we opened our doors to welcome 51 people to worship with us. There was energy and rejoicing as we gathered as one body to love and serve Christ. We believe that God is guiding this relaunch in powerful ways as we witnessed the unfolding of a ministry that is diverse, multigenerational, community- fostering, discipleship- focused, Chris-centered, and transformational. We hope you will join us this Sunday.

The Praise Band led by Jono will be welcoming back Grace and Jiho to lead us in vocals.

We are also very excited to welcome back Rev. Steve Eliason who has served in many leadership and teaching roles at Bethany College of Missions (See Bio below)*. After worship, join us for a time of fellowship and food. Finger food (kimbop, chicken fingers, cake/cookies & coffee) will be served.

Announcements

Who is Rev. Steve Eliason?

Rev. Steve Eliason has a master's degree in Intercultural Studies and is currently completing his Doctorate in Intercultural Studies. He has served as a dean and adjunct faculty at Bethany College of Missions. More recently, he has been in leadership roles at the college serving as a Church Engagement Director and Director of Diaspora Ministry. Steve Eliason believes that he is called to serve and train God's people by demonstrating and communicating God's message of reconciliation. His vision to bring this to pass is to continue to learn and thereby be equipped to serve as a more effective teacher; seize opportunities for service, especially in Asia; and to pour over the truth of the glorious Gospel and our amazing and loving God.
