Greetings!

Last week, we celebrated the return of all the children as the Children's Ministry re-opened after 2 years. It was wonderful to see smiling faces and balloons throughout the day-everywhere - as the children (now much taller and older) reunited with teachers and friends. And, we had several people try out pickleball for the first time! It was a hit (pun intended!) and we will be hosting another one on May 1st!

The EM continues to swell with gratitude and excitement for our reinvigorated EM Ministry. The focus continues to be Christ-centered, multigenerational, diverse, community fostering, discipleship focused, and transformational. Last week's sermon by Rev Chang spoke to many of us as we reflected on how Jesus was working in our own lives. This week, we warmly welcome back Rev. Steve Eliason as our guest speaker (See full bio below). We hope you will come to experience heartfelt worship and praise!

After worship, join us for a time of fellowship and food (Kimbop, Pizza, & Pastries).

Who is Rev. Steve Eliason?

Rev. Steve Eliason has a master's degree in Intercultural Studies and is currently completing his Doctorate in Intercultural Studies. He has served as a dean and adjunct faculty at Bethany College of Missions. More recently, he has been in leadership roles at the college serving as a Church Engagement Director and Director of Diaspora Ministry. Steve Eliason believes that he is called to serve and train God's people by demonstrating and communicating God's message of reconciliation. His vision to bring this to pass is to continue to learn and thereby be equipped to serve as a more effective teacher; seize opportunities for service, especially in Asia; and to pour over the truth of the glorious Gospel and our amazing and loving God.
